What you are going to do

Description of the job

Our client produces mushrooms and is looking for an accurate person to label their products. Besides printing and placing the labels, you'll also be the final quality control. You'll also be helping out your colleagues in production if need be. This work requires you to handle food. Do you have a keen eye for detail? Then this is the job for you.

What we ask for

- You speak English (Dutch is a plus)
- Quality comes first - you immediately let someone know when something is off.
- You have good work hygiene and have no issues working in a cool (literally) environment.
- You live around the area of Hoogstraten and have your own means of transport.

What we offer

- A full time job in shifts, flexible days
- You'll be working in a diverse team
- Any overtime is paid (150%)
- Possibility of a fixed contract
- Good conditions such as travel allowance
