

Packaging worker in mushroom factory - Early hours

Full-time

What you are going to do

Description of the job

A large production company in Meer is looking for production employees who have experience with packing. Do you have a keen eye for detail and do you miss nothing? Then this is for you.

This company is located in Meer, near Hoogstraten. This company is located near the industrial zone and therefore easily accessible by car.

The company is active in food and works with fresh mushrooms. Their products are distributed in several supermarkets. In this job you will sort the mushrooms, check for quality and label the packaging.

Interested in this position as a food packer?

Apply quickly via the site, or contact us directly by mail or telephone.

Our recruiters are happy to help you!

You can call us on +32 3 808 54 10, or email us at work@staffing-esg.be

#Prijob

What we ask for

- You are flexible to hours and can work in daytime hours, but also with an early shift. The starting time can vary between 6 a.m. and 9 a.m.
- You want to work in a colder environment. It is about 6 degrees inside production.
- You are flexible to hours & days. You regularly work on Saturdays.
- You are willing to be on standby regularly on your day off. This means that you can be called if there is extra work.
- You have transport to Meer industry. There is no public transport nearby. You can ride with our bus from Antwerp. This is the only boarding point.
- This company works with a daily schedule. This means that you hear the day before what time you have to start.

What we offer

- Working with a nice team of colleagues at a company with a good working atmosphere.
- Possibility to work overtime (pay 150%). You work full-time.
- Prospect of a permanent contract.
- A nice wage of 13.70 euros per hour.
- The ability to take our transportation to work. We provide a bus from Antwerp if you wish to take it.