

Production Operator

Lokeren

What you are going to do

Description of the job

Our customer in Lokeren makes fantastic chocolate lollipops.
They put their mission "make people happy" into practice every day.

You ensure an optimization of the start-up of the production lines.
You are responsible for correctly setting up and adjusting the (coloring) machines.
You perform correct quality checks.
You ensure less long downtime on the lines.
You monitor the continuity of the production process.
You think about improvement processes.
You are under the direct supervision of a group leader and you work closely with him.
You help ensure quality, order, cleanliness and safety in the production department.

If the mission "Make People Happy" appeals to you, please contact us.

Production Operator

Lokeren

What we ask for

- You preferably have an education or work experience as a baker, pastry chef, chocolate processor or food operator.
- You have technical insight or knowledge to manage our machines.
- You are stress resistant and a team player.
- You have an eye for detail and work very meticulously.
- Our machines are controlled by computers. Computer knowledge is therefore necessary to bring your job to a successful conclusion.
- You are enthusiastic, assertive and a chocolate lover!

What we offer

- Indefinite contract
- A challenging, full-time position (38 hours a week) with numerous career opportunities.
- Shift work is not an issue for you. During our busy period (April to Feb) you work in 2 shifts: 5:30 am – 1:36 pm and 1:30 pm – 10 pm (on Friday until 7:30 pm).
- During our quiet period (Feb to April) we will work with the day shift: 7.30 am – 4 pm (on Friday until 1.30 pm).
- An extensive training in which you are supported by your colleagues. You are not alone!
- An hourly wage of €17.20 supplemented with shift bonus (early shift: €0.54/h, late shift: €0.61/h)
- Meal vouchers (€8/day) and eco vouchers (€250/year) after 6 months
- After 1 year you get your LUCKY day – a day off on which you can only do what you like
- A fantastic team in which you can be yourself.