

Want to make some dough? Production specialist Full-time for chocolate truffles and other luxury foods

What you are going to do

Description of the job

Working on the production of sweets and luxury foods such as chocolate truffles: you can in this job as a production specialist. We're looking to compose a team that works together on one of the lines. You can work as a dough maker (and earn some dough!), peeler or as a packer.

You'll be working at the production facility in Ramsdonk (between Antwerpen and Brussels) in 3 shifts, so having your own means of transport is preferred. As a production worker you'll be making products for the Belgian market or for Eastern European export. So there's a big chance of seeing your own products in a store near you.

What we ask for

- - Good work mentality and proper work hygiene.
- - You have your own transport to work.
- - You speak at least some English.

What we offer

- - Earning dough by making dough
- - A job in a artisanal production facility
- - A steady team to work together on producing the finest quality